...and all generations shall call me blessed...

Luke 1:48

Blessings Religious Ed Family:

Although things are a little different, we remain steadfast in Faith. God's presence is closer to us than the very air we breathe. "Do not let your hearts be troubled, but trust in the Lord..." John 14:1

As we begin another spiritual formation year, please find a moment to review the following:

- Registration form (Please complete and return)
- Tuition (If you are financially unable, please email the office)
- Primary means of communication via email (Please check on regular basis for changes and updates)
- Student textbooks available in parish office foyer (exterior glass doors open 24/7)
- Tentative calendar (on reverse side - subject to change)

Two catechetical options: Google Classroom / Family Centered

Google Classroom Model:

Catechist is the primary instructor

Parent email used for students

Students will need to accept invitation to classroom

Lessons posted every Sunday morning

Assignments due on or before the following Friday (via classroom)

Catechist will keep RE Office informed of student accountability

Email catechist via classroom or RE Office with any questions or concerns

Family Centered/Homeschooling Model:

Parent primary instructor

Online Teacher's Manual for lessons / If no PC, email the RE Office for hard copies

Actual class time and day decided by parent

Expectation: A chapter every week or two depending on pace of child's learning abilities

Weekly lesson plan composed by parent

Lesson plans submitted to RE Office monthly (by mail or delivered to parish office foyer)

Email the RE Office with any questions or concerns

Thank you abundantly for your commitment to the Faith and your spirit of cooperation under the circumstances. Be assured of my ongoing prayers. Remain safe and healthy...this too shall pass.

Your Brother in Jesus,

Joe Ranelli – Director of Religious Education & Sacrament Prep
